1/18/69

Dear Phil,

Because I will not now be going to N.O. in the a.m., I'll mail the copy of the transcript herewith. You will recognize it as the one you annotated. We have transcribed the corrections to the ribbon copy.

I was in Court in Washington yesterday, expected an entirely different end, and there should have been. I wish I could explain it but I cannot. I feel the position taken by N.O. was too holy, even for the pope.

We'll have to let time work now.

And now, after I clean up the usual accumulation after every special project, perhaps I can get back to my own writing, and a little physical outdoors activity.

With the file copy in N.O. is the notation it is not to be used without your corrections and annotations. When I am next there I'll bring it back and transfer them, then return it.

Hurriedly,